Who Are We?

The Division of Ageing was established in August 2003, and is dedicated to facilitating and encouraging a healthy, vibrant ageing population within Trinidad and Tobago.

The Division of Ageing collaborates with various agencies on programme and policy initiatives from both public and private sectors to promote awareness of elder issues develop support networks and implement action items designed for older persons.

Why Were We Established?

According to a data from the 2010 National Census, older persons make up 13.4% of the population of Trinidad and Tobago. This figure is expected to rise to 20% by 2025 with increased life expectancies and decreasing population growth.

Ageing brings with it many changes and are threatened by increased risk of diseases and social ills. The Division seeks to enable older persons to fulfill their potential contributions to their communities, while helping them to understand and prepare for the issues associated with the ageing process.

What we do?

The functions of the Division of Ageing include:

- Developing national standards of care for older persons
- Monitoring and coordinating the implementation of the National Policy on Ageing
- Developing and implementing programmes and projects for the benefit of older persons
- Conducting Research on matters pertaining to older persons and ageing
- providing assistance to vulnerable older adults
- Networking with social sector agencies and Ministries, the private sector and civil society in the interest of older persons

How do we do it?

- Joint establishment and Monitoring of Senior Citizens Centres across Trinidad and Tobago for educational and recreational use.
- Hosting annual Retirement Planning Seminars for the private and public sectors.
- Hosting the Senior Citizens’ Parliament in commemoration of the International Day of Older Persons to formally raise awareness for elder issues.
- Organizing and conducting seminars and workshops for care providers of older persons.
- Management of an Older Persons Information Centre (OPIC) to provide information on options and services available to older persons.
- Providing research support to multilateral agencies including the UN and tertiary education institutions on elder issues and statistics.
